BIG DEAL ON MAUI

Agricultural Company Getting Its Properties in Hand.

An instrument has been recorded whereby the Paia and Haiku plantations on Maui, sell to the Central Mill Company all their mill properties and the necessary water rights for the sum of $350,000. The Maui Agricultural Company, in turn, leases the mill from the Central Mill Company for $15,000 a year, the lease to run for forty-two years and six months. The name of H. P. Baldwin appears as president of all the contracting companies.

The document filed sets forth that the Maui Agricultural Company includes Paia, Haiku, Kalaupani, Pulehu, Kula, Makawao and Kailua plantations. In consideration of the payment of $350,000 by the Central Mill Company, 2-5 to Haiku and 3-5 to Paia, the latter sell all their mill properties and necessary water rights to the mill company. The latter in turn leases them for 42 years and 6 months from June 1, 1906, to the Maui Agricultural Company, at a rental of $15,000 per year.

The document was signed on July 17. H. P. Baldwin, president, and J. Waterhouse, secretary, signed for Paia and Haiku. H. P. Baldwin, president, and W. O. Smith, treasurer, for the Maui Agricultural Company, and H. P. Baldwin, president, and E. E. Paxton, secretary, for the Central Mill Company.

The number of stamps required by the government to be placed on the instruments amounted $173. All of the documents in connection with the deal were sworn to before John Guild.

The Central Mill Company was recently incorporated by the men who own the Paia and Haiku plantations to facilitate the milling of their cane. The company is incorporated for $375,000 and stocks to the amount of $350,000 have been issued.

MIDSUMMER SOCIAL A GREAT SUCCESS

The "Midsummer Social," given last night in the Y. M. C. A. hall was even a greater success than those who had planned it had anticipated. The seating capacity of the big auditorium was taxed to the utmost to accommodate the guests, who one and all entered into the spirit of the occasion, making it a social in all that the word implies.

The early part of the evening was devoted to the excellent program arranged, the various numbers of which, more especially those of an athletic nature, very heartily applauded. At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served and the affair resolved itself into a mutual entertainment social, in which everyone was free to take a part and make acquaintances.

The formal program of the evening was:
Solo—Stanley Livingston, Pyramid Building—By the Diamond Head Athletic Club.
Solo—R. C. Brown, Incandescent Club Swinging—By F. C. Atherton.
Violin Solo—W. A. Love.
Solo—Jas. Doherty.
Horizontal Bar Exercises—Diamond Head Athletic Club.
Selections by the Diamond Head Quartet.

THE JEFFREYS-JEFFREY WEDDING AT PALO ALTO

The Palo Alto Citizen says:

Last Tuesday at high noon, Miss Grace E. Jeffreys, daughter of Mrs. Kate P. Jeffreys of Honolulu, became the bride of Harry Jeffreys of Boston. The ceremony took place in All Saints church, and was conducted by Rev. Donald M. Brookman. The chancel had been tastefully decorated in white and green, Mrs. Brookman having planned the decorations. The bride, dressed in white liberty satin, en princess, with corsage of applique and carrying white carnations, entered with her brother-in-law, W. B. Allen, who gave her into the keeping of the groom. Mrs. W. B. Allen, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore her own wedding gown, while the bridesmaid, Miss Cordelia Hays, wore a princess gown of pale blue silk. H. M. Jeffreys, of San Francisco, a cousin of the bride, was best man.

The ceremony in the church was followed immediately by the christening of Edith Winifred, Mrs. Allen's little daughter. This, together with the fact that the day was the fifth anniversary of Mrs. Allen's wedding, made triple celebration. The wedding breakfast was served in the Allen home on Ramona street, which had been elaborately decorated in pink and green. There were twenty-four seated at the table, the immediate friends and relatives, who were Mrs. Kate P. Jeffreys, Miss Jeffreys of Pomona, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allen, Lloyd Allen, E. E. Allen, Miss Cordelia Hays of Bridgeport, Mrs. Grove Laurence of San Mateo; Mrs. W. D. Canney and H. M. Jeffreys of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. E. Moody, Misses Hazel and Mildred Moody and Mr. and Mrs. L. Lathmesen of Berryessa, Miss Emma Looibourrow of Oakland, Mrs. J. H. Eggers of Alameda, and Mr. and Mrs. Brookman.

After the breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffreys left the house surreptitiously, entered a cab waiting around the corner and drove to Mountain View, where they took the train for Del Monte. On July 15 Mr. Jeffreys will sail for Shanghai where he has business interests and his wife will join him later.
